I, Jason Walk, am a Task Force Officer with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I have knowledge of the following facts based upon my investigation, review of reports and discussions with other law enforcement personnel and others. All statements herein are set forth in substance and in part:

1. Beginning in or about March 2006, an individual cooperating with law enforcement (the "CW") provided information that defendant BASIL WALKER a/k/a "Seal," belonged to a criminal street gang known as the "Crips."

2. On or about June 2, 2006, in Newark, New Jersey, the CW purchased a one Remington 870 20-gauge shotgun, serial number B385350U, from defendant BASIL WALKER for approximately $400. This transaction was observed by law enforcement and consensually video and audio-recorded.

3. The Remington 870 20-gauge shotgun, serial number B385350U, that the CW purchased from defendant BASIL WALKER is a weapon which will, or is designed to, or may readily be converted to, expel a projectile by the action of an explosion, and was manufactured outside the State of New Jersey.

4. A review of criminal history records revealed that prior to June 2, 2006, defendant BASIL WALKER had been convicted of a felony offense punishable by a term of imprisonment greater than one year in a court in the State of New Jersey. Specifically, on or about September 12, 2002, defendant WALKER was convicted in Essex County Superior Court of Possession of CDS with intent to distribute on school property, in violation of N.J.S.A. 2C:35-7.
